

Tax Wise Newsletter

Michelle featured on Sky Business News Channel

Director of Face Accountants, Michelle Pearce was a recently a guest on the Sky Business show “Your Money, Your Call”.

Your Money Your Call is a live one hour show where the public are invited to call in and seek general advice from a panel of experts.

To check out how Michelle went please click on the link below.

More Details

Planning for your individual tax return

With 30 June 2008 fast approaching, it's time to get serious about looking at what shape your tax affairs are in so you are prepared for this year's tax return.

Take a look at our 4 step guide, by clicking the link below, to getting your tax affairs together for this year.

We also highlight what the ATO will be looking at when lodging your 2008 tax return.

More Details

June 2008

DID YOU KNOW...

Face has been “trying on” a new advertising campaign in the local magazine, the Village Voice. We have now placed these ads on our website. We'd love your feedback, so please check them out under “News/Print Media”.

Please send feedback to enquiries@faceaccountants.com.

Planning for your business tax return

A bit of forward planning can go along way. We have provided a list of the tax planning basics to help you with your year end processes.

For a summary of the planning tips please follow the link below. For further information, please contact us.

More Details

Changes to Super Guarantee

As you are aware, you are required to provide a minimum level of superannuation support for an employee - currently 9% of the employee's notional earnings base.

In working out an employee's notional earnings base, from 1 July 2008, you will now be required to make sure all your employees' Super Guarantee contributions are calculated using ordinary time earnings. For more information follow the link below.

More Details

To remove your name from our mailing list, please click here.

Questions or comments? E-mail us at enquiry@faceaccountants.com.au +61 2 9555 1309